Alaska Rural Energy Conservation Convention

April 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 2009

Galena, Alaska

The City of Galena in partnership with the Galena School District is hosting the Alaska Rural Energy Conservation convention in Galena on April 2nd, 3rd and 4th.

Sixteen plus presenters, representing leading energy conservation businesses, government agencies and universities will be offering recognition of and alternative solutions to the energy crisis now facing interior Alaska.

Alaska legislators and interior village tribal leaders or their representatives have been invited to attend and will participate in a group gathering session to discuss and compare energy problems and seek possible solutions.

Exhibits to view plus educational materials on energy conservation will be available for all participants to browse and take home to share. Evening social activities are also being planned for visitors during the three day conference.

Please contact Jay Jacobs at 656-2108 Ext.112 or Rand Rosecrans at 656-2117 if you would like to make arrangements to attend. All are welcome to attend

To help “spread the word” concerning energy conservation an essay contest (for HS students) was offered to 10 different villages. Two winners were to be selected from each village and they, plus a chaperone were to be flown (at AREC’s cost) to the conference.

Five of the 10 villages invited to participate responded (see following list) and winners selected. At the last minute one of the villages withdrew (carnival time). The winners from the remaining four were flown to AREC and participated in the conference (including a telecast with the State Legislature organized by Rep. Sharon Cissna.

Following is a list of the winners, their essays and “Thank You” note.

THANK YOU LETTER

Date: April 14, 2009

To: GILA Staff and Students,

Thank you so much for letting us, essay winners from the Lower Yukon School District attend the energy conference. We enjoyed every moment of our stay in Galena that we didn't get home sick and we were surprised that everyone was so welcoming and heartwarming. It made all of us feel at home. Some of us didn't want to go back home because we all made a lot of friends and it's something that we will never forget.

We didn't just have a great time there, we also learned so many things from the conference that we are all willing to take them back to our community and share it with our fellow classmates and teachers. We've learned that saving energy is one of the most important things that can have a great impact on someone's life. Turning off the lights just for one minute is a great way of saving energy. We have also learned that energy can't be wasted and that it's something that can't be taken for granted.

Once again, thank you so much to all those who made this exciting trip possible and for giving us food, beds to sleep on, instead of the floor, and last but not least to every student and staff member that made us feel at home for three days.

Thank you

Sincerely,

Krizzelle Diston

P.S. I had tons of when I was there, I met so many people, and made so much friends, that I won't forget. I also learned so much. Thank you for having us.

Floyd Allick

I enjoyed the energy conference, the food, the dorm you've provided, the student there were very kind. I only wish I was freshmen so that I would school there. I very much

Jayna Kelly

I had a great time in Galena. Made me wish I had school there. Everyone was so nice there and thank you for the trip to Galena.

Emerany Allick

Thanks for the trip to Galena. I want to go school up in Galena because it was so nice and a big school. Made me felt like I was home with brothers and sisters.

Welcome to the Iditarod Dorm & AREC

On behalf of Supt. Jim Smith, the staff & students of GCSD/GILA we wish to Welcome you to our campus. Some helpful information tips are contained below to hopefully make your visit with us both productive and enjoyable.

Your room key must be used if you wish to lock your room when leaving for class etc. Your room key also unlocks the entrance doors to both the Iditarod Dorm and the GILA campus gym.

A phone is available for your use in both the lobby and/or in the office (shared phone line). Local calls may be made on either phone but long distance calls will require a calling card. Helpful/emergency numbers are posted on the wall above the phones.

There is a TV located in our “commons room” just off the main lobby available for viewing. All guests are welcome.

Meals for our guests will be served in the Two Seasons Dining Hall (located directly across the street as you exit the Iditarod Dorm front entrance). Meal times are as follows:

Breakfast 8:00 AM – 8:50 AM

Lunch 11:45 AM – 12:30 PM

Supper 5:00 PM – 6:00 PM

Weekends - Brunch 10:30 – 12:30 Supper 5:00 p.m.

No GILA students without special administrative permission are allowed inside the Iditarod Adult Dorm. As “acting parents” of our HS GILA students we are very protective of their safety so please - observe this rule for the protection of all.

When you check out/depart for home PLEASE leave your room key in the Wooden Key Box located on the outside Iditarod office wall in the lobby.

AREC sponsored by Denali Commission & Division of Business Partnerships

PRESENTERS

- Representative Sharon Cissna will host a video conference between Juneau legislators, student and tribal leaders.
- Bernie Karl; Owner/operator Chena Hot Springs resort, Bernie has been involved with pioneering work in geothermal power generation for the last several years here in Alaska. Through the use of cutting edge technology, innovation, and his imaginative tenacious style Bernie has set the bar for implementation of alternative energy systems.
- Dave Fredrick is the owner of Alaskan Heat Technologies; he will speak about Garn wood gasification boilers; like the one installed last year in Tanana.
- Brian Hirsch was recently named Special Projects Director, by the Obama administration, for the National Renewable Energy Lab here in Alaska. He will speak about opportunities for Alaska.
- Ron Brown is a Project Manager for the Alaska Energy Authority. He will be speaking about and showing samples of pellet fuels.
- Jack Hebert is the president and CEO of Cold Climate Housing Research Center. He has been designing environmentally appropriate and energy efficient homes in Alaska for over 30 years. Jack will speak about arctic building and remodeling challenges.
- Gwen Holdmann is the organization director for ACEP she will be bringing possibly two more members of her staff and will be speaking about project development. Jack Schmid is with the ACEP also, he is the gentleman who took the infrared camera photographs for us and worked with our science department earlier this winter.
- Paul Weisner is the engineer/consultant who provided us with the analysis on the old dining hall. He will speak about wood energy projects in Alaska.

- Gary Lawrence is with The Council of Athabascan Tribal Governments. He will share with us information on the Yukon Flats biomass Project, with a power point presentation.
- Dane Crowley is with Superior Pellet Fuels and will speak of the prospects for wood pellets as an Alaskan industry.
- Jim Norman owner/operator of ABS Alaskan on solar photovoltaic and solar thermal prospects in interior Alaska.
- Chris Rose is the Executive director for Renewable Energy Alaska Project, he will be making a presentation on renewable energy .
- Monty Worthington is with the Yukon River Inter-Tribal Watershed Council. He will share information on the YRITWC's Ruby hydrokinetic research project.
- Bear Ketzler is the City Manager of Tanana. He will address the topic of natural gas/propane for interior Alaska.
- George Cannelos is the federal co-chair of the Denali Commission. He will be addressing our students as to the role of the Commission in regards to renewable energy in Alaska.
- Jim Dodson, President and CEO of Fairbanks Economic Development Corporation presents on the In-State Gas Pipeline report completed and compiled by the Interior Issues Councils, In-State Gas Pipeline Task Force.
- Eric Franklin is with Johnson controls, will present on LEED buildings (Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design)
- Richard Seifert works in the energy and housing department of UAF cooperative extension service. He has published numerous articles on energy efficiency, and will be teaching a mini workshop on diagnosing energy issues and retrofit.

- Heidi Wahto will represent Hydro Green Energy, a renewable energy project developer that designs builds and operates hydrokinetic power projects.
- Jessie Peterson will present Finding Your Voice an educational program geared towards teaching students how to contact and communicate with elected officials and legislators.
- Rebekah Luhrs with RurAL CAP will visit with and inform students of opportunities and how to serve their villages in the VISTA Energy Program (VEP).
- Greg Smith will represent Global Energy Solutions. He will share information on cutting edge technology designs being developed and implemented by GES in the area of CHP (combined heat and power generation).

GCSD/GILA science students participated in a field trip to Chena Hot Springs as part of the Grant. They also visited the Cold Climate Housing Research Center and the Energy Dept. at UAF.

Following are pictures taken during that trip and student evaluations

As part of AREC Grant HS students participated in a Weatherization project for the native elder homes in Galena. With the help of Jack Schmid and an infrared camera (both provided by UAF) photos were taken of an elder's home to show where heat loss was occurring and then students proceeded to caulk and repair as needed.

Following are examples of those homes/pictures.

Grantees: Please refer to the following definitions when completing the Excel sheet. Place an "X" in the appropriate boxes when the information correlates with your program participants.

Post Secondary: is a form of secondary education that is taken after first attending a secondary school, such as a high school. The purpose of a post-secondary education can be to receive vocational education and training or to prepare for an even higher level of education or employment.

Apprenticeship: is a structured system of post-secondary training designed to prepare individuals for skilled occupations. It is paid on-the-job training. Participants get paid while they learn. Registered apprenticeship training is more formal than most other types of on-the-job training. Registration means that the program meets government standards of fairness, safety, and training.

Training Academy: A school for special instruction.

On The Job Training: OJT's are company sponsored and are an opportunity for secondary and post-secondary students to learn about a business on the inside. Interns must be paid if your company is a for-profit-organization.

Credentials: formal documents issued by an institution once a student has met the institution's requirements for completion of a particular program or course. These may be certificates, diplomas or degrees, including advanced and post-baccalaureate diplomas, associate degrees or baccalaureate degrees.

Job: occupation: the principal activity in your life that you do to earn money.
